SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—The "boy around the corner" pleaded innocent today to two murder charges in the stab-slayings of a 14-year-old baby-sitter and her four-year-old charge.

Dixon-Yates Pact Signing Delayed

Both Parties Agree To Put Off Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Dixon-Yates contract was on the shelf until after election today "at the suggestion," the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said, "of members representing both political parties."

This was the committee's wording yesterday in wiring its 18 members there'll be no public hearings next Wednesday, as had been planned, on the much-disputed private power proposal.

Instead, it suggested the hearings be rescheduled for Nov. 4—two days after the elections. It said "an overwhelming number" of the legislators found their campaigning duties too heavy to hold hearings now.

The contract provides that the Dixon-Yates private utility group build a plant to send electric power through Tennessee Valley Authority public power lines.

The Senate already is scheduled to meet in special session Nov. 8 on the move to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Some Republican senators said privately they were more than pleased by news of the Dixon-Yates postponement. They said they had considered it would be a mistake to provide such a forum for foes, particularly Democrats, of the proposal.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), a leading critic of the contract, applauded the postponement and said "I think the hearing got too hot for them to handle before the elections."

The plan calls for private utility companies headed by Edgar H. Dixon and E. A. Yates to build a generating plant at West Memphis, Ark.

Lions Club Sight Project Opens Monday

The Lions Club's schedule for the annual examination of the eyes of the city's third grade school children was announced today by Sam Wald, president.

The schedule is: Monday morning, Prospect School; afternoon, St. Paul—Tuesday morning and afternoon, Reilly—Wednesday morning, McKinley, afternoon, Buckeye—Thursday morning and afternoon, Fourth St.

The tests are conducted by club members with the aid of automatic optical instruments which render laymen users experts. If a child's eyes are found defective in the initial examination, the parents are informed and additional tests are scheduled.

Should final results confirm the original findings, and should the parents be unable to provide corrective eye glasses, the club will stand the necessary cost.

Chairman of the campaign is Glenn Robbins.

In conjunction with the drive, members are currently engaged in a "Light for Sight" campaign. Proceeds of the project, which involves the sale of light bulbs, aid the club in its school sight program.

Excellent response to the project was reported by Floyd Craig, chairman, in the first two days of the campaign.

Tuesday's weekly meeting of the club will start with a dinner served in the Lape Hotel at 5:30 p.m. Following the meal, members will visit the Bell Telephone Co. in Youngstown. The tour will include the inspection of Bell's television facilities and the WKBN-TV.

Tall, 18-year-old Kenneth R. Chapin responded in a clear voice, "not guilty" to the two charges of murder read out in the District Court room by Clerk James Lovett.

Judge John M. Noonan ordered Chapin held without bail for hearing Oct. 19.

The boy's father, Theodore E. Chapin, Springfield Army electrician, sat in a front row during the brief arraignment. The father's eyes were tear-filled as he watched his oldest child arraigned.

The boy glanced at his father, but they did not speak to each other.

Sophomore Looked Tired

The high school sophomore looked tired and his hair was tousled as two policemen led him into the courtroom.

"This complaint charges," the clerk intoned, "that you did assault, and beat with intent to murder Stephen Ross Goldberg, and did murder him on the 25th of September this year. How do you plead?"

"Not guilty," was the response in a steady voice.

The identical wording charged him with the slaying of Lynn Ann Smith, 14.

Police Chief Raymond P. Gallagher and Dist. Atty. Stephen A. Moynahan said that the boy admitted in a signed statement that he slew Lynn Ann and the Goldberg boy.

Young Chapin, whose home is only a few doors from the Smith family's, was a pallbearer at her funeral a few days after the slaying two weeks ago tonight.

Thread Was Evidence

It was a small piece of crocheting thread, which police deduced had been used as a grip wrapping on a knife, that police said led them to take Chapin from school for questioning yesterday.

Gallagher said Chapin, a 6-foot, 3-inch electrician's son described by teachers and friends as a "good ... quiet boy" offered no reason for the double slaying.

Gallagher said the youth, a Boy Scout leader who had never before been in trouble with the police, chain-smoked cigarettes but otherwise was calm as he explained the slaying and readily signed his statement.

Told Location Of Knife

Then, Gallagher said, he told authorities where they could find the death knife (behind a chair in his room) and his blood-stained clothing hanging in a kitchen closet of his home.

The police chief said "there is no question of sex being a factor in this case. It definitely is not."

Gallagher quoted young Chapin's statement as saying he began stab-

Russell, Eljer CIO Contracts Are Signed

Contracts were signed yesterday by two locals of the United Steelworkers of America with area manufacturing concerns, according to Paul Evans, CIO union staff representative.

Officials of the F. C. Russell Co. signed a pact with representatives of Local 3790 yesterday which will increase the hourly rate of its employees five cents. In addition, the company will assume the full payment for hospital and insurance benefits, Evans said.

The Russell Co. has plants in Columbiana and Conneaut. A similar hourly increase was granted employees of the Eljer Co. as a result of a contract signed yesterday by representatives of the company and Local 3816. In addition, the pension and hospitalization plans were improved, Evans said.

According to Evans, the contract between the Mullins Co. and Local 1538 representing Mullins' workers should be signed Monday. It would grant wage and fringe benefit increases similar to those granted by basic steel industries.

Evans said that he has a meeting with officials of the Columbiana Pump Co. Wednesday and has "every reason to believe we will reach a satisfactory settlement next week."

No contract has been signed at the Electric Furnace Co. plant here where 140 employees are on strike.

6 Persons Hurt In Road Mishaps

Five Drivers Cited By State Patrolmen

Three teen-agers were hospitalized as a result of one of seven traffic accidents in which a total of six persons were injured and five drivers arrested yesterday and early this morning, state highway patrolmen report.

David Hornick, 16, of East Liverpool, is listed in critical condition with a severe head injury in East Liverpool City Hospital where he was taken with the three other occupants of a car that crashed in Calcutta at 11:45 p.m. yesterday.

According to patrolmen, the vehicle, driven by 16-year-old Ted Snodgrass of East Liverpool, was traveling east on Route 170 at a high rate of speed when the driver attempted to pass another car and lost control of his auto., causing it to overturn.

In Poor Condition
Snodgrass, who will be cited in juvenile court for reckless driving, is in poor condition in the hospital with lacerations of the head and multiple abrasions of the body. John Anderson, 16, of East Liverpool, another passenger in the car is listed in fair condition with a fractured pelvis and hip.

A third passenger, 16-year-old Grace Stockdale of East Liverpool was treated for a lacerated eye and right ankle and released.

Charles Poteet, 42, of Canton was arrested for driving while intoxicated and a passenger in his car, 39-year-old Albert Sloat of Canton, was taken to Alliance City Hospital following an accident at the intersection of Johnson Road and Route 62 at 2:55 a.m. today.

According to patrolmen, Poteet's westbound auto turned into the path of an eastbound car driven

Rhodes To Release Audit Of Turnpike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Charging that the facts in his audit of the Ohio Turnpike Commission have been distorted by "a vituperative attack against me personally," State Auditor James A. Rhodes says he will distribute copies of the official audit report so "the public may examine them and see for themselves what the report says."

Rhodes, Republican nominee for governor, said he will make copies of the much-criticized report available at his own expense and will have them placed in county courthouses about the state (with exemptions).

In a statement issued yesterday, Rhodes denied claims that the audit by Donald D. Cook, former FBI agent, was a political document "designed as a smear."

Mendes-France Stakes Cabinet On Arming Vote

To Appeal To Nation For Support On Plan To Rearm Germany

PARIS (AP)—Premier Pierre Mendes-France turned to the nation today for support of his demand that Parliament give him a vote of confidence on the London plan for German rearmament.

He planned at least one radio talk and a concerted effort to whip balking deputies into line before the issue comes to a vote Tuesday in the National Assembly.

Dramatically halting what threatened to become an all-night debate, Mendes-France told the assembly last midnight it must either agree to the nine-nation plan or get a new government.

May Face Vote

Staking the life of his Cabinet on the results of the vote, he warned deputies that if they voted him out they might have to face new national elections.

The London agreements would permit West German rearmament as part of an expanded Brussels treaty organization and would give the West Germans full membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance. They were drafted as substitute for the French-rejected European Defense Community Plan.

Mendes-France took a tough line with the assembly, which has held up German rearmament since 1950.

He told the deputies he would accept no resolution beyond simple endorsement of the London agreements and his own speeches in the debate. The issue, he said, was one of confidence in his government.

Fears Seen Justified

Acknowledging justification for French fears of German rearmament, the premier said the seven-nation European alliance proposed in the London agreements would give France more security than even EDC had offered.

In his plea for national unity, Mendes-France appealed for the support of those who had favored the EDC plan. Many EDC proponents have expressed reservations about the new defense scheme.

"It is a law of life," the premier said, "that nature does not move in jumps. The unification of a continent is something that takes a long time. We made progress toward building a united Europe at London."

Although some of Mendes-France's arguments hit home, the deputies showed little enthusiasm. Most of them were obviously depressed at the thought of voting for the rearmament of Germany, which has invaded France three times since 1870.

Freighter Capsizes With 48 Aboard

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The Coast Guard reported this morning that two men had been picked up and three others sighted in the water from the ore-laden freighter, Mormackite, which according to a survivor capsized with a crew of 48 men aboard.

The first survivor picked up from the missing freighter, identified as Michael Angel Hernandez, chief steward of the Mormackite, said the ship capsized. He did not say when, but Coast Guard officials estimated it was probably early Thursday when winds were high and seas rough in the area.

Both men were picked up 150 miles east southeast of Cape Henry, Va., after they had been sighted by Navy and Coast Guard planes out of Elizabeth City, N.C., which directed the Macedonia to the area.

Shortly thereafter the planes reported sighting three more men in life jackets in the water.

Father Given 1-20 Years For Killing Infant

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 35-year-old freight handler, who killed his infant son during a fit of anger, drew a one-to-20-year penitentiary sentence last night.

Paul C. Brown Jr., the father, said he became angry when the 22-month-old baby would not drink milk from a glass instead of a bottle. He tossed the child three feet into its crib and the baby's head struck a side bar.

Common Pleas Judge Arthur H. Day said he felt "very sorry" for the defendant, but added: "This case teaches a valuable lesson. Parents should never lose their tempers with their children."

United Local Won't Re-Open

Health Officials Act As Polio Continues

United Local School will not open Monday as formerly announced due to the increase of recent polio cases in that area, the Columbiana County Health Department announced today.

A 34-year-old Dunganman man and two children in the Columbiana County general health district are the newest victims. The three cases bring the total in the county to 33.

The decision to keep United Local School closed was made today after a conference between Dr. T. A. King of Columbiana, county health board member, and James L. McBride, school superintendent.

The action was confirmed after a long distance telephone conversation with health department officials and Dr. George Pantera, health commissioner, who is attending a health convention in Buffalo.

Dr. King said the action was considered necessary in view of the six new cases in United Local district this week and two Columbiana cases.

He and McBride urged that church social functions and other public gatherings in the United Local area be discontinued for the time being.

Newest victims are Ernest Hicks of Dunganman, who was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Youngstown, Friday; Richard Clair, 10-year-old student at United Local, who was admitted to the hospital Thursday; and Linda Eckhardt, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eckhardt of Friends St., Columbiana, a patient at South Side Hospital, Youngstown.

Jack Clair, 2½, brother of Richard Clair, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital last Saturday. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clair of RD 1, Hanoverton.

13 Persons Missing After Fire In Hotel

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Thirteen persons were unaccounted for here today after fire destroyed the small three-story Milam Hotel and four other business establishments.

Fire Capt. Joe Counts said, however, that it would be "up in the day" before it was definitely known whether anybody actually died in the blaze which started yesterday afternoon at 5:50 p.m.

Counts told the Associated Press at 4:30 a.m. today he still had four pieces of fire equipment pumping water on the smoldering ruins. At that time, he said, no bodies had been found.

Fire Chief Eugene White earlier had said there was a possibility some persons were trapped in the blazing 75-room hotel. Of the 27 guests registered, more than a dozen made their way to safety by an outside fire escape. In all, 14 guests were accounted for, Counts said.

Firemen said heavy smoke and water damage to nearby businesses may bring the total damage to a half million dollars.

Counts said two of his firemen suffered minor injuries.

More Indictments Expected In Probe Of Housing Scandals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Capehart (R-Ind.) said today he expects "a lot more" indictments to result from his Senate Banking Committee's investigation of post-war housing financed with government-insured loans.

The committee recessed four days of hearings here late yesterday. But Capehart ordered subpoenas for five witnesses to appear at a hearing Nov. 9. He emphasized the investigation is not concluded.

Earlier, Capehart had indicated hearings were over except for persons who wished to testify because they thought they were injured in previous testimony.

A special federal grand jury here has been instructed by Atty. Gen. Brownell to "inquire into bribery and other criminal conduct in the federal housing program," and grand jurors also have been convened in other cities.

Capehart said indictments are showing up almost daily and added, "there should be a lot more."

Brownell announced the grand jury here would inquire specifically into the conduct of Clyde L. Powell, ousted last April as assistant Federal Housing Administration commissioner in charge of the rental housing program.

Powell, three times a witness before the Senate committee, refused to answer questions. He claimed constitutional protection against possible self-incrimination. The committee received testimony Powell had demanded and got $10,000 to increase an FHA commitment on a Washington apartment project loan and that, in a 10-year period, he had banked $138,000 more than his net federal salary.

Earley Warns Youth Of Possible Curfew

Police Chief George Earley warned this morning that if youthful vandals continue destructive pranks he will ask Council to pass emergency legislation setting a temporary curfew.

According to Earley, complaints have already been received by his department that Halloweeners have been damaging property in the city. Last night four calls were received. Two windows were reported broken.

"If this vandalism continues," Earley said, "I will go before Council and ask for a 9:30 p.m. curfew until after Halloween."

The police chief also announced that he has ordered patrolmen to periodically check all bars and poolrooms as a drive against the loitering of juveniles in those establishments.

President Urges Continued GOP Rule In Congress

Nation Is Told 2 Drivers At Wheel Of Car Won't Work

DENVER, (AP)—President Eisenhower, vigorously pressing the Republican campaign for continued control of Congress, declared last night he foresees "a cold war of partisan politics" if the Democrats take over.

Speaking to a nationwide television-radio audience and a cheering capacity crowd of 5,500 persons at a GOP rally in Denver Auditorium after getting a report from party congressional leaders on their plans to step up the campaign tempo, the President said: "History shows that when the executive and legislative branches are politically in conflict, politics in Washington runs riot."

The President was interrupted at least 42 times by applause, which helped to run his TV-radio address overtime and caused him to be cut off the air about a half minute before he completed his text.

The 30-minute program carried by 158 TV channels and 534 radio stations from coast to coast was paid for by the GOP National Committee, and the networks held to the time limit.

In New York, a spokesman for CBS said stopping transmission at the end of paid political time was "in line with long standing procedure."

In his Denver speech, Eisenhower, cautioning about what he called the dangers of a November election outcome putting Congress under Democratic rule and leaving the White House Republican, declared:

"You know perfectly well that you just can't have one car with two drivers at the steering wheel and expect to end up any place but the ditch—especially when the drivers are set on going in different directions."

Eisenhower said voters who put the Republican administration in power in 1952 "got results" they wanted, and he appealed for two more years of GOP control of Congress to carry out the rest of his program.

Confident Living

By DR. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

How To Live To A Ripe Old Age

A vice president of the Monsanto Chemical Company has recently organized what he calls his "Coronary Club." The membership rules say "Your job comes first. . . . personal considerations are secondary. . . . take your office home evenings, Saturdays, Sundays, holidays. . . . accept all invitations to banquets, meetings, and committees."

Dr. Peale

The regulations also enjoin the member to regard "fishing, hunting, golf, bowling, billiards, gardening as a waste of time and money"; forbid him to "take all the vacation allowed you"; and insist that he "work all day and drive all night to keep an appointment the next morning." No sure way to have a heart attack is overlooked by the "Coronary Club."

On the other hand Dr. John McWhinny, a medical school faculty member, has outlined a prescription to protect his doctor students against early heart attacks. He recommends:

1. One less hour of worry for one more hour of laughter.
2. One less week of high-pressure living for one more week of restful vacation.
3. One less luncheon conference for one more midday period of relaxation.
4. One less evening of formal society for one more evening with a good book.
5. One less hour under the electric light for one more hour in the sunshine.
6. One less hour in the automo-

Students No Longer Okay As Civil Defense Spotters

WESTFIELD, Mass. (U)—There may be a shortage of civil defense volunteers, but Director William Bushmann says school students no longer will be allowed to man the Ground Observation Corps tower on the roof of the Westfield High School.

He said yesterday that instead of looking for airplanes, the student watchers:

1. Flew model airplanes.
2. Tampered with fire extinguishers.
3. Ran around the roof.
4. Watched football games on an adjoining field instead of the sky.
5. Displayed a fresh and argumentative attitude toward the school custodian.
6. Punched holes in the ceiling of the tower.
7. Drove staples into the walls.
8. Caused other damage to the interior of the tower.

Siamese Twins Die

After Separation Try

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U)—Siamese twins who were given little chance of reaching maturity without separation are dead after a surgical attempt to separate them.

The twin girls, Connie and Bonnie, died during an operation at University Hospital here yesterday after more than four hours on the operating table.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Johnson, Negro couple from Pine Bluff, Ark., requested the operation after being told there was little hope their children would reach maturity if they remained joined.

They were born July 26 with the sternum bone which normally lies between the ribs, joining them face-to-face.

Yesterday's surgery revealed that the infants' hearts were fused and practically formed a common organ.

MAYOR DEFIES COUNCIL

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (U)—The mayor of nearby Rarden yesterday announced he would not resign as demanded by village council.

Mayor A. P. Hoffer, 66, was charged with an abuse of authority by council. Members said Hoffer illegally jailed six of Rarden's 500 residents in the past two months. Council said they would petition for removal if Hoffer did not resign. Hoffer said the action was brought by "soreheads."

Adam to Zeb

Adam was the first man to walk this earth. Zeb is a young fellow from the Middle West.

Centuries separate them from one another. But they have a great experience in common. . . . Each has walked with God.

The names of Adam and Zeb are pages apart in the encyclopedia of human history. And in between them are countless millions of other names. Each belongs to a man who has lived, and who has had opportunity to walk with God.

Churchmen's Week, soon to be celebrated throughout our land, is the symbol of the unity of America's men in their worship of God, their Creator, and of Jesus Christ, their Saviour. Participate in the services and rallies which will mark this week of spiritual dedication in your community.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Bender For U. S. Senator

We do not know what luck Sen. Tom Burke
is going to have at the polls with his campaign
argument that he is a better Eisenhower supporter than Rep. George Bender, who is running against Burke for senator.

We do know that it is a specious argument
and unworthy of Burke, who knows what the score is in two-party politics.

The race for U. S. senator in Ohio this year
is not a popularity contest, nor is it a showdown
on which of two contestants has been more
faithful in supporting the White House.

It is a political decision in a key state whose strong Republican Senate leader, Robert A.
Taft, died in office and was succeeded by a relatively unknown Democrat, appointed to stand in for Taft by Gov. Lausche until the people of Ohio could name a new senator.

George Bender won the Republican primary race for the Senate. He should be the new senator from Ohio.

He has worked with the Republican organization in Ohio since 1920, when he went to the General Assembly as a state senator. He has served in the U. S. House of Representatives as a district representative and congressman-at-large. He had the confidence of the late Sen. Taft and worked hard in the unsuccessful campaign to bring Taft the presidential nomination in 1952. He knows the ropes.

But the key factor about Bender is this:

He will vote with Republicans on the question of organizing the 84th Congress. He will vote to give President Eisenhower a working majority in the Senate. He will stand on this critical issue where Taft would have stood—
and Taft was elected to serve until 1956.

We don't know how Bender will vote on anything else. Eisenhower doesn't know either and doesn't care. He doesn't think it is any of his business how congressmen vote.

We wish Tom Burke would quit seeming to think he can change his spots as a Cuyahoga County Democrat by boasting that he voted
with Eisenhower while he was in Washington.
Dozens of Democrats can say the same thing—
but Democrats will not give Eisenhower the time of day if Republicans do not have a majority in both houses of the next Congress.

This is the key issue in the congressional election—whether voters will give the Eisenhower administration a Republican majority for 1955 and 1956, or whether they will paralyze
Congress by letting Democrats control its committees and hog-tie the Eisenhower administration.

George Bender would be part of the Republican majority.

Tom Burke would be a member of the opo-sition.

He cannot change his spots. In a party showdown on control of Congress, he and every other Democrat must vote against Eisenhower.

Tragedy Of Fate

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Korean Casualties Traceable To Loose Security

The evidence of loose security
among the governments allied with the United States during the Korean War points now suspiciously
to the grave possibility that American lives indeed were sacrificed in that conflict by the transmission
of important military information
to the enemy.

Gen. Van Fleet, Eighth Army
commander, and Gen. Willoughby,
who was in charge of the intelligence operations of the Far Eastern Command, and in fact Gen.
MacArthur himself now say that the Communist Chinese must have known that they would not be bombed or their planes pursued if they attacked United Nations
forces in Korea.

The testimony of Dean Acheson,
who was secretary of state during
the fateful period when American military strategy was being developed in consultation with the Allies, did not seem as significant
when given as it is today in view of the revelations of spy ring in Paris and the treachery of Mac-Lean and Burgess in the British Foreign Office disclosed since 1951.

For the story told on June 1, 1951, by Acheson—who, of course,
had no suspicion of any looseness
in the security situation among our allies—appears in the light of what has happened since to show
how difficult, if not impossible,
was the role of the United States,
as military agent of the United Nations, in Korea.

SEN. RUSSELL, who was chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee at the time of the Mac-Arthur hearings, asked Acheson
about "the details of the so-called
hot pursuit finding by the members of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff where they recommended
that our planes be permitted to pursue the planes of the Communist aggressors over the Manchurian border." Here is what Acheson
said in reply:

"Some days prior to the 13th of November 1950, there were discussions between the Department of Defense and the Department of State, as the result of which the Department of State transmitted
to our embassies in certain countries a message saying that at an early date we might permit United States aircraft to defend themselves in the airspace over the Yalu River, to the extent of permitting hot pursuit of enemy aircraft up to two or three minutes
flying time over enemy territory."

"Those telegrams resulted in our
embassies taking up with the governments of those countries, this question. We did not ask them to get any expression of views but informed them that they might, in a short time, have to ask these governments about this matter."

"They discussed the question
with those governments, and in all cases they got strongly negative responses from the governments, saying they thought it was dangerous, and not desirable . . .

"Shortly after that some of these governments in their turn came to our embassies and again stated
that if we were thinking about
this, they wanted to register their view that it was unwise and undesirable. I transmitted the views of these governments to the secretary of defense in a letter, one letter dated Nov. 23, 1950, and in another letter which I believe was dated Nov. 24, 1950.

"After considering these responses, it was determined between the Department of State

and the Department of Defense
that it was not desirable to go further with this suggestion."

SEN. BRIDGES asked: "What was the date when the Chinese Communists came in?"

"They actually attacked, I believe," said Acheson, "on the 26th of November. They had been known to be in Korea, I think,
since perhaps the 24th of October,
certainly in the early days of November, we began to get reports from the commander in chief Far East, that units were in North Korea."

So it appears that the decision to attack on a large scale was made after its allies in the U. N. told the United States emphatically
that our forces could not reconnoiter by air to see what the Chinese Communist troops were doing and could not fight back by air to bomb the supply lines in Manchuria from which the Communist Chinese troops were being supported.

The importance from a security
standpoint of the military decisions of those autumn days of 1950
is emphasized in the following
passage from the same testimony:

"Chairman Russell: You stated
you took it up with six countries.
I will not ask which they were.
But I had understood there were
some 13 nations who had contributed troops to the United Nations
forces in Korea. Why was it confined to six nations rather than
to consult with all of them?"

"Secretary Acheson: I have tried to refresh my memory on that
and I do not know. The six countries which were picked out were prominent and representative, and I think it was probably a view of
not spreading the security too widely . . .

"Chairman Russell: In other words, it had a highly secret
security rating at that time?"

"Secretary Acheson: Yes, sir;
this would be a military operation
which you would not wish to inform the enemy about."

BUT GEN. MACARTHUR, Gen.
Van Fleet and Gen. Willoughby insist that the enemy did learn somehow presumably from an embassy source abroad and shaped its policy—A general
attack—because it knew the United Nations forces would not use airpower as a military weapon
to make a proper and normal
military defense of the area.

The result? More than 140,000
American casualties.

Still the Europeans and not a few Americans continue to poopoh the espionage menace and talk about the insignificant number of enrolled Communists in this country. It took only one Klaus Fuchs to transmit the facts about the atomic bomb.

It doubtless took only one spy in
the French or British Foreign Office to tell the Communists they were safe in risking their big
army on the Korean peninsula,
with the long supply line into Manchuria immune from attack.

What a tragic way to conduct a war!

What a warning to America that
her sons may face in the next war
operation, big or little, the same hazards of treachery among our allies because they are not as security conscious as they should be.

The Doctor Answers

Some unusual conditions, like
that described in today's first letter, still lack an adequate explanation.

Q—I am the mother of three children and after the birth of each child I suffered extreme loss
of hair which started about two months after giving birth. It continued in each case for about four months, and they may have begun
to grow back and became as thick
as ever. This is a discouraging situation, and I am now suffering
the disorder again after the birth of my third child. Have you any suggestions?

Mrs. S.
A—Complete loss of hair following the birth of a child, an operation, or a severe illness, does occur once in a while. The cause is not known, but generally the hair does grow back, and this seems to be a situation which medical men can neither explain
nor help at the present time.

Q—Would running an old-fashioned sewing machine by foot be hard
on someone with varicose veins?

Mrs. M.O.
A—It probably would be rather harmful. In any event, the varicose veins should probably be treated by surgery, injection, or at least by wearing an elastic support.

Q—Will a thyroid tumor cause
cancer?

Mrs. C. E.
A—There are several different kinds of tumors and enlargements
of the thyroid gland. Cancer can occur in the thyroid gland, though many of these enlargements are not cancerous. It is not safe, however, to leave them untreated.

Q—Could one of the serious nerve diseases, like multiple sclerosis, be caused by an untreated pernicious
anemia?

Mrs. M. D.
A—Multiple sclerosis is almost

certainly not caused by untreated
pernicious anemia, but another disorder involving the nervous system, generally known as subacute
combined sclerosis, is usually considered to originate from untreated pernicious anemia.

Big Test For Co-Existence Line

By JAY G. HAYDEN

Nowhere, it is safe to say, has
the tentative new agreement for rearmament of Germany as part of a Western European defense
force created more searching of soul than among the current rulers of Russia.

Clearly, this confronts the revamped Kremlin high command
with the acid test of whether its repeated professions of desire for "peaceful co-existence" reach to the practical point of willingness to make the minimal concessions
essential to relief from Europe's present armed-camp atmosphere.

Possibly even more compelling,
Russia faces what looks like its
last chance to head off the solid front against her of all Europe
that lies outside the Iron Curtain,
plus the United States and the British Commonwealth.

The way this heading-off could be accomplished almost certainly is for Russia suddenly to offer to withdraw all military control from Eastern Germany, provided the Western Allies will do the same in Western Germany, preparatory to creation of a truly sovereign and all-inclusive German nation.

FACED WITH SUCH an offer it
is wholly improbable that the West
German Parliament would follow
Chancellor Adenauer into a deal
which still leaves the non-Communist
two-thirds of the former Reich
considerably short of self-control.

Even without attractive new Communist bait the biggest single factor of uncertainty concerning
the new defense arrangement is whether the West German Bundes-
tag at Bonn will ratify it.

In a plain did for Russian counter-cession Thomas Dehler, chairman of the Liberal party—second largest in Adenauer's coalition
government—said: "If the West is agreed on a joint effort for the common defense then we can start
talking business with the Soviets. . .
We do not have to wait until the 12 German divisions have actually been organized and armed."

Dehler has been a leader in urging a united but neutralized Germany, along with three heads of
pre-World-War-II German governments—Bruening, Luther and Von Papen.

It is to blunt the force of that

movement that the United States, Britain and France are rushing to remove their occupational restraints on German sovereignty
with the view of arming Adenauer
with an accomplished fact in that regard as part of the new bill of defense unity goods he will present
to his Parliament.

MEANWHILE the Russians have
been making many moves designed to prove that "peaceful co-existence" already is on the way for the people of Eastern Germany.
Between Eastern and Western Germany, according to the London Economist, "barriers are lowered
and the traffic of Germans passing
back and forth across the zonal
frontiers is said to be as great as
before the war."

But Russia always has stopped
short of making any remotely acceptable gesture toward getting out of Germany and restoring it
to full sovereignty.

Had the Soviets moved in that direction, the American Marshall Plan easily could have been delayed, if not defeated. And, up to the very hour that the European Defense Community Treaty was signed nearly three years ago,
American negotiators frankly had their fingers crossed for fear the Russians at the last moment would come through with some proposal
sufficient to divert French or German adherence to the plan.

Again, when ECA was pending
before the West German Parliament, to be passed finally by an eyelash, U. S. experts expected that Russia would come through

with some tactic that would delay,
if not permanently defeat, ratifica-
tion.

Rather than moving effectively to deter anti-Communist unity, the Russians have tended to aid it by rubbing one or another of the desired collaborators the wrong way
just when he seemed to be balking.

AMONG WESTERN diplomats,
a quite generally accepted speculation as to why the Russians have passed up seeming opportunities to upset their opposition is that they are too scared of the potentialities
of the united Germany to permit it.
There is an impression especially
set out to free Eastern Germany
gradually in the summer of 1953
only to beat a hasty retreat when
their first evidences of kindness
were construed as weakness, with
the effect of setting off an abortive
armed revolution.

Part of the rising drive in Western Germany against any further
move toward building an army committed to the West is said to spring from belief that East Germany is ripe for revolution, which rearming of West Germany might deter by causing the Russians to bring their armies back to the Elbe River line in great force.
The Kremlin chiefs must be assessing all these factors as they watch the surprisingly successful
new move toward consolidation of forces among their potential enemies.

U. N. Employes Told To Put Loyalty To U. N. Over Loyalty To Own Nations

1,556 Americans On Payroll; Warned Not To Assist Subversion

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U. N. employes, including 1,556 Americans were told today to put loyalty to the U. N. above loyalty to their own countries.

They were warned at the same time to steer clear of revolutionary activity aimed at the forcible overthrow of any government—and even of "active criticism of a government."

The advice was given in a new 16-page handbook on behavior titled, "Report on Standards of Conduct in the International Civil Service."

The report came from the nine-member International Civil Service Advisory Board, a permanent body created by the 1946 General Assembly.

It was directed at the 5,187 employes of the U. N. here and abroad and the 5,000 or so employes of 10 affiliated specialized agencies in Washington, Montreal, Paris, Rome, Geneva, and Bern. Latest figures from the U. N. mission here indicate 1,556 American citizens are employed by the U. N. and 753 by the specialized agencies.

In case of any conflict between national and international loyalties, the report said, "the conduct of the international civil servant must clearly reflect his obligation to the international organization."

"Any appearance of disloyalty to that organization," it added, "must be considered incompatible with his status."

The staff member will find this idea easier to take it cleared, if he reflects that, "from the long-range point of view, legitimate national interests can only be served by . . . the successful progress of the international organizations" toward world peace and prosperity.

If he can't take it, the report went on, he should quit.

All staff members the manual emphasized, "are, during their period of service, international officials" and "must clearly understand that they are not, in any sense, representatives of a national government or of a national policy."

Slaying

bing and beating the girl the moment she opened the door admitting him to the Goldberg apartment in a substantial section of Springfield.

Then, Gallagher went on, the youth heard little Stephen cry. He went to the child's bed and stabbed him and beat him with the wooden knife handle.

The bodies were found by the youngster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Goldberg, when they returned from a night movie. Lynn Ann had been stabbed 34 times. Her neck was broken. Stephen was stabbed 24 times. His skull was fractured.

Recalled All Details

Gallagher said young Chapin recalled every detail of the slayings except how many times he stabbed the girl and the little boy.

After the slayings, Gallagher quoted him as saying he went home, washed his clothes and cleaned the knife, hid them, and went to bed.

The police chief said Chapin's arrest came after a house-to-house check of the neighborhood around the Smith and Goldberg homes. He indicated that a piece of crocheted thread, found in the Goldberg apartment, led to the Chapin home.

Earlier, police who described the thread as their best clue said it had been wrapped around the handle of the knife to secure better grip.

Donald Gifford, principal of Springfield Technical High School, called Chapin "a good boy who never came before me for disciplinary action." Other teachers said he had not missed a school day since the Sept. 25 slaying.

Repeating Sophomore Year

Gifford said the youth was repeating his sophomore year at the high school at the request of his parents "because he hadn't made the progress the family thought he should last year."

Goldberg, father of the slain boy, said: "I feel terribly sorry for his parents. I know what they must be going through. He has ruined three families."

Another Goldberg child, Robert, 6, saved his own life that terrible night by pulling the bed clothes over his head and keeping quiet in a back room of the apartment.

Goldberg, a wholesale meat dealer, said young Chapin's sister, Beverly, a good friend of the slain girl, had sat with the Goldbergs children many times. "You could tell she came from a good family by the little things she did," Goldberg said.

Neighborhood companions described Chapin as a "quiet boy" who traveled alone a great deal. They said his parents always insisted he be in the house by 8 p.m.

Stunned neighbors, meanwhile, were unanimous last night in their amazement and disbelief.

200 Expected At Legion Conference

LISBON — Some 200 are expected for the 10th district American Legion fall conference Sunday at David Anderson High School here.

Principal speaker will be Joe Deutsche, American Legion departmental adjutant of Ohio. Pete Copeland of Bowerston, 10th district commander, will have charge of the meeting.

Classes will include post activities, national security, child welfare, conservation, rehabilitation, junior baseball and Americanism.

Breakfast and lunch will be served by members of the Lisbon American Legion Auxiliary.

Grand Jury Indicts Man, Frees Woman

A charge of stabbing against Mrs. Inez Pearson of East Liverpool was ignored Friday by the recalled Columbiana County Grand Jury while a burglary indictment was returned against an Alliance man already indicted on two other counts.

A no-trial bill was returned for the 27-year-old housewife accused of thrusting a paring knife into the chest of Mrs. Sylvia Smith Wilson, 26, of East Liverpool. The wounding occurred over a dispute concerning Mrs. Wilson's alleged attentions toward Robert G. Pearson, the defendant's husband.

John Sterling Boyle, 31, of 527 E. Broadway St., Alliance, following the Grand Jury's reconsideration of his case, is now faced with charges of burglarizing an inhabited dwelling, assault with intent to rape and malicious entry.

He is accused of threatening at knife-point Mrs. Evelyn Zimpelman of Alliance RD 5, to coerce her into intimate relations with him.

Mrs. Zimpelman, a divorcee with three children, testified that Boyle forcibly entered her home on Mahoning Ave. Ext. the morning of Sept. 3.

She said she awoke to find the man with a knife at her throat. "He told me not to scream for my father or he would kill my baby," she related to Justice of the Peace R. E. Eden of Homeworth. Boyle apparently believed Mrs. Zimpelman's father lived at the house, although it is occupied by only the mother and three children.

Boyle ran when the victim's 10-year-old son heard a commotion. The Alliance man forced his way into the home by slashing a screen door then opening the locked inner door with a skeleton key.

Boyle, free on $3,000 cash bond, will be arraigned in Common Pleas Court Friday.

between the Congress and the executive branch won't give us these goals," he declared.

Eisenhower got a howling ovation when he was introduced at the rally here by Vice President Nixon, who voiced confidence the Republicans still will be in the control saddle when Congress meets in January.

Eisenhower was flanked on the speakers platform by a group of Republican congressional leaders and Colorado GOP candidates for Congress and state offices.

To Step Up Tempo

The leaders conferred with the President for an hour before his speech and at a news conference later promised "a stepped up tempo" in their fight for control of the House and Senate.

"They avoided committing Eisenhower to more than the two additional campaign speeches he now definitely has planned. But Nixon said the president probably will make another address—a farm speech somewhere in the Midwest."

House Speaker Martin and Senate Majority Leader Knowland publicly continued to voice confidence the Republicans will win their battle, but some members of the party high command were saying privately they are worried.

Eisenhower's speech last night was in much the same pattern as the one he made in Hollywood Bowl. As on that occasion marking the start of his harder hitting tactics, the President jabbed repeatedly at the Democrats without once mentioning individuals or the opposition party by name.

Kayoed By Fate

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"Fate knocked my brains out," said Lou Nova. At 38 the retired heavyweight boxer, who earned half a million vanished dollars in the ring, has traded his "cosmic punch" for a punchline. He is trying to make a comeback in a new career as a night club comedian.

TV, Radio Banned At Sheppard Trial

CLEVELAND (AP)—Judge Edward Blythin says no television cameras, radio microphones or sound records will be permitted in the courtroom while Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard is being tried on a first degree murder charge. Dr. Sheppard, 30-year-old Bay Village osteopath accused of bludgeoning his wife to death is to go on trial Oct. 18. He has insisted his wife was the victim of a bushy-haired man who invaded their home.

Judge Blythin pronounced the ban on TV cameras, microphones and recorders yesterday while discussing news coverage of the coming trial.

"This man is entitled to that much privacy," said the judge. "Any man on trial for his life must be given every protection he is entitled to, and he is entitled to that privacy. While he is on trial he is the guest of the state."

The judge said taking newspaper photographs also would be prohibited while the court is in session. The judge said attorneys for Dr. Sheppard estimate the trial will last at least a month.

3,000 Methodists Set For Cleveland Service

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three thousand delegates from Methodist churches in the United States, Hawaii and Cuba open a weekend national conference on family life here today.

The delegates will consist largely of young married couples, as well as ministers and Sunday School workers. The problems they will tackle include rising juvenile delinquency, rising divorce rates, working mothers and the fact that some 20 million American youths do not belong to church.

Following registration this morning, the conference officially starts this afternoon with a communion service led by Ohio Bishop Hazen G. Werner of Columbus.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of Washington, D. C., will make the keynote address.

Ike Calls On All U. S.

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower today called on all Americans to observe Veterans Day, Nov. 11, by remembering "the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly" and through rededication "to the task of promoting an enduring peace."

The President signed a proclamation noting that Congress last year passed a resolution changing Armistice Day, which commemorated World War I dead, to Veterans Day, in honor of the servicemen of all America's wars.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Edward E. Harris, 39-year-old Zanesville laborer, remained in critical condition at Good Samaritan Hospital here after he was blasted out of his home by a gas explosion last night. The blast shattered one wall of Harris' 2-room apartment. He told firemen he believed the explosion occurred because a disconnected gas pipe in the kitchen had not been capped.

TCU Upsets Highly-Favored Southern California 20-7

Clinksdale Leads Horned Frogs

Miami, Fla., Trips
Holy Cross 26-20

By JACK STEVENSON

The Associated Press
Texas Christian University's Horned Frogs joined football's giant killer list today after stunning previously undefeated Southern California 20-7 in an intersectional battle last night at Los Angeles.

Quarterback Ronnie Clinksdale, a 175-pound senior directing the split T offense, provided the spark that ignited the unpredictable but explosive TCU club. He streaked 60 yards for a touchdown the first time he carried the ball.

Then after USC had tied the count, Clinksdale took the kickoff 58 yards to set up the second TCU touchdown and he tallied the third on a four-yard jaunt around end.

The TCU upset topped a slim slate of Friday night battles that also saw Miami of Florida snap to life in the final period to beat Holy Cross 26-20; Presbyterian upset Davidson 10-7; and Denver come from behind to beat Montana 19-13.

"We knew all the time we had a good ball club," said Coach Abe Martin of TCU's Southwest Conference entry. The Horned Frogs had thrown a surprise into Oklahoma's Sooners, rated No. 1 in the Associated Press poll before losing 21-16, but then lost 20-13 to an Arkansas team they were supposed to whip.

Southern California, winner of three straight and ranked No. 9 in the poll, thus went into the game favored by a couple of touchdowns. But the Trojans never reached the Texans as an alert pass defense nipped scoring threats on three occasions.

Miami, the 20-point favorite, had its troubles with Holy Cross and only a 66-yard march for a last period touchdown saved the Hurricanes. Quarterback Bobo Figlio raced the final 36 yards for the score.

Presbyterian upset Davidson by the unusual method of turning two early safeties and one touchdown into 10 points. End Bobby Jackson accounted for both safeties smashing through Davidson's defenses twice in the first period.

Denver had to come from behind a two-touchdown deficit to stop Montana. Rusty Flarly's passing and running clicked in the second half, however, and the Pioneers tallied two touchdowns in the third period and the winning one—a 19-yard pass from Flarly to Larry Ross—in final quarter.

At this stage of the season, the first bowl game went into the records. Maryland State College routed North Carolina A and T, 34-13, in the annual Fish Bowl game at Norfolk, Va. The winners took a 27-0 halftime lead.

Tonight's top games pit Auburn against Kentucky, Mississippi against Vanderbilt, Colorado against Arizona and Clemson against Florida.

Browns Line Up New Backfield For Cards

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, sporting a new backfield unit, appeared today to be in their best shape of the season for their home opener tomorrow against the Chicago Cardinals.

Only Carlton Masey, rookie defensive end from Texas, who sprained his ankle against the Philadelphia Eagles, is on the doubtful list.

The starting backfield unit will include quarterback Otto Graham, halfbacks Ray Renfro and Dub Jones and fullback Marvace Bassett.

Although this will be the seventh game—including five exhibitions—for the Browns, it will mark the first appearance together of the four men.

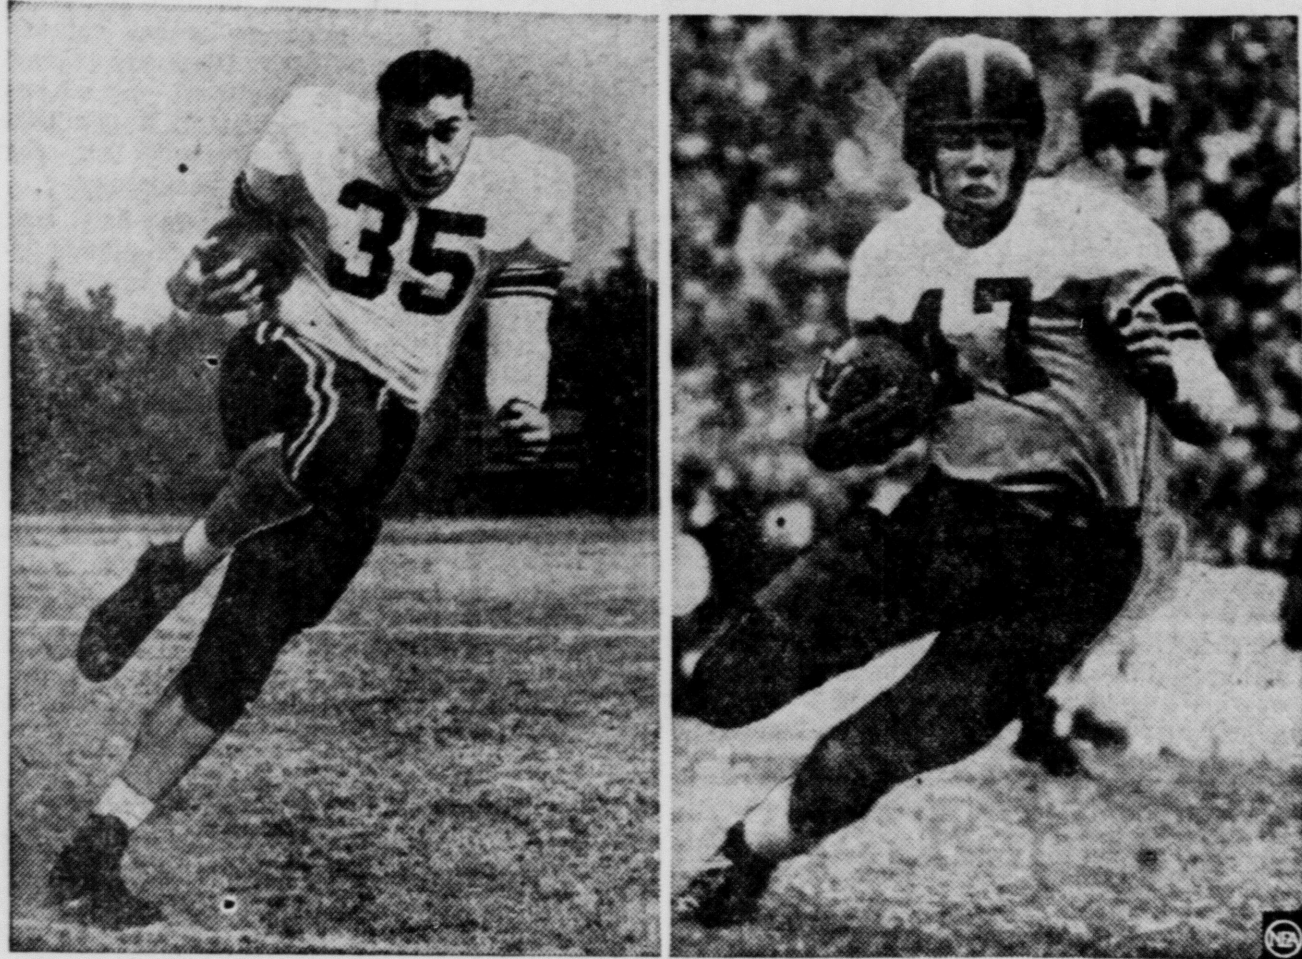

Renfro was out with an injury Jones didn't join the club until after the fourth exhibition game and Bassett just won the starting fullback job.

Werle Seeks To End Little Series Tonight

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Bill Werle, seasoned by major league experience, will have a chance to wrap up the Little World Series for Louisville of the American Assn. tonight when he opposes strikeout artist Jack Meyer of the International League's Syracuse Chiefs.

The Colonels from Louisville hold a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven series as the result of a 14-9 triumph last night in which they connected with two grand slam homers, scored eight runs in one inning and then held off a 7-run Syracuse rally in the ninth.

Louisville's grand slamers were hit by Norm Zauchin, who drove in five runs in the free-for-all, and Pete Daley. Zauchin hit his in the third to send the colonels away in front. Daley connected with his during the American Assn. club's eight-run seventh inning.

CLASH OF THE WEEK—Wisconsin's hard-running Alan Ameche, left and Rice Institute's Dick Moegle will be featured today in the nationally televised game in Madison between the two schools. Both are expected to be standouts in the contest.

Columbiana Is Victor Over Springfield Twp.

Coach Rich Berryman's Columbiana Clippers won their third game of the season last night, defeating the Springfield Twp. grid-ers 26-0 at Columbiana's Firestone Park Stadium.

The Clippers scored twice in the first period and added a touchdown in both the second and third quarters. Springfield checked the Columbiana drive in the last frame.

Minor League Official Bids For Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tommy Richardson, a minor league baseball mogul, says he has $3,375,000 cash to plunk down for the Philadelphia Athletics franchise.

"I expect to be in Chicago Tuesday to ask the American League club owners to vote me the right to buy the franchise for my group," Richardson, president of the Eastern Baseball League, said yesterday.

Just before his statement came one from millionaire building contractor John McShain—who was believed to be Roy Mack's last hope to retain control of the club. McShain said he wanted out of the deal, that he's not interested, and doesn't expect to be.

But Richardson said "if they (the owners) give me the package, I can go out and sell it," adding: "These people want to know what they are buying."

He said he would keep the club in Philadelphia if it was supported. However, he said, if Philadelphia wouldn't support the A's, he would move them to one of six other cities.

He listed the cities as Toronto, Montreal, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Houston and St. Paul.

He declined to give the number or names of the men in the group "willing to buy the A's if they give me the right deal."

9 Of Nation's Top Colts Race In Futurity Today

By JOHN CHANDLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Nine of the nation's best 2-year-olds meet today in the rich Futurity stakes at Belmont Park, and the trainer of Alabama-owned Rohal Coinage thinks he has the swag already stowed away in his saddlebags.

The trainer is Al Pupino, and he could be so right in a horse race that would be no big upset if any one of four horses grabbed the big prize.

Royal Coinage was beaten one length Oct. 1 by Nashua in the six furlongs Anticipation Purse at Belmont.

The futurity, 6½ furlongs down the Widener straightaway, will be carried on the CBS television network, 4:43 p.m. EST. A non-television co-feature will be the $30,000-added Manhattan Handicap.

With nine starters, making it the smallest field in 15 years, the Futurity would be worth $114,715, the winner collecting $90,015.

Nashua, Royal Coinage, Summer Tan and Georgian are the "big four" in the sparkling field. Others, distinctly outsiders, are Indicative and Brilliant Gem, Brown Hackle, Traffic Judge, and Model Ace.

Trap Shoot Sunday Set By Hunting Club

The Salem Hunting Club will hold a trap shoot at the club range Sunday at 2 p.m. Secretary Don Cannon announced today.

This will be the first in a series of shoots to be held during the months previous to the hunting season. Anyone interested in shooting is invited to participate.

The first in a series of chicken and turkey shoots will be held Sunday, Oct. 17.

Steubenville Winner Over East Liverpool

The East Liverpool Potters went down to their second defeat of the season last night as they fell to the Steubenville Central Catholic gridders 20-13.

Midway in the first period the Crusaders got to the Potter 45-yard line where Joe Prest broke loose and drove to the Liverpool 15-yard line. After an off side penalty set Central back, Prest fired to end Tom Frankhauser for the TD. Frankhauser made a shoe string catch on the five-yard line and ran the ball over. The attempted placement was blocked.

With 2:53 left in the quarter, Miller Bailly recovered a Steubenville fumble on the Central 25, and on the next play Jim Potts passed to Herb Dorsey on the five, and he raced over. Dick McNichol plunged over to give the Potters a 7-6 lead.

The score was tied 13-13 at the half. Central controlled the ball in the third frame but couldn't get inside the Potter 20. The Crusaders' last touchdown came in the fourth period when they returned a punt to the Potter 43 to set the stage for another Press - o - Frankhauser pass.

The Potters started toward a score in the fourth but Central intercepted a pass on their 20 yard line to end the East Liverpool threat.

Alliance Squeezes By Magics 21-20

BARBERTON — The Alliance Aviators, ranked number one team in Ohio high school football, edged by the Barberton Magics 21-20 here last night.

Both teams entered the contest with 3-0 season records. Last week the Aviators took over the top notch in Ohio scholastic play as they defeated the Massillon grid-ers 19-7.

Barberton led the Aviators at the end of the first period 13-0 with a 33-yard pass by George Izo to Larry Horning in the end zone scoring the first touchdown. Izo's placement was good and eight pass plays later the Magics had another score.

On the first play of the second quarter Joe Plumber raced 39 yards to score for Alliance. Don Slusser's placement was good. In the third Tom Barnett took the ball through center for the second Alliance TD with Slusser's kick again good to give the Aviators a one point lead.

Barnett went over again in the third period after Frank Kracher intercepted a Barberton pass on the 25. Slusser's conversion made it 21-14. At the start of the final frame Alliance quarterback Bill Offenbecker fumbled and Barberton recovered on the Alliance 11. Bob Hunter took the ball over left end on the second play.

Alliance made most of their gains on the ground while the Magics passed most of the time completing 13 of 26 passes.

Bob Lemon Still Dazed At Series, Takes Rest

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Pitcher Bob Lemon, two-time loser for Cleveland to the New York Giants in the World Series, settled down at home today and said he was "still in a daze" over the outcome.

Lemon said he'll do plenty of pitching—hay, that is—at his ranch near Bearstow, Calif., this winter.

Fair Weather Seen For 21 Ohio Games

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Twice-victorious Ohio State meets twice-defeated Illinois today, favored to win but remembering last year's jolting 41-20 setback at the hands of the underdog Illini. Near perfect football weather was predicted for this and 21 other Ohio college games.

Ohio State was rated a two-touchdown favorite after defeating Indiana and California. Illinois has been beaten by Penn State and Stanford.

Kent State launched the weekend Ohio college football campaign last night with a 52-7 route of Baldwin - Wallace. Kent State scored three times on their first six plays. Six of the eight Kent touchdowns were by Lou Mariano and Mike Norcia, both from Canton, who scored three times each.

A dozen interstate college games today sent Ohio teams to Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Michigan and Illinois. Invaders come in from Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Pennsylvania.

In the Ohio Conference, a duel between total offense individual leaders will be seen in the Heidelberg-Wittenberg game at Springfield. Don Wood, Wittenberg fullback has piled up 279 yards in 44 tries to lead the individual rushing and total offense lists. Myron Singhaus, Heidelberg quarterback, has completed 17 of 28 passes for 275 yards and five touchdowns for second place in the total offense department.

Ohio teams have played 54 games thus far, with host clubs winning 26, losing 26 and tying 2. In 29 interstate games Ohioans have won 14, lost 14 and tied one, outscoring the outsiders 441 to 433.

Saturday's collegiate schedule: Afternoon: Ohio State at Illinois, Ohio U. at Western Reserve, Bowling Green at Western Michigan, Denison at Wooster, Xavier at Miami, Depauw at Oberlin, Wash at Ohio Wesleyan, Central State and West Virginia State, Louisville at Dayton, Slippery Rock at Ashland, Grove City at Hiram, Youngstown at Westchester State, Ohio Northern at Northern Michigan, Olivet at Bluffton, Marietta at Capital.

Lisbon Trips Bulldogs 13-12

Rose's Placement Is Margin Of Victory

The Lisbon Blue Devils won their third contest in a row last night 13-12 over the East Palestine grid-ers on the Bulldog field. The Blue Devils lost their first contest 13-0 to Akron Coventry and since have returned to the win column.

Chester Leslie, who earlier dove across from the one-yard stripe, passed 20 yards to Reynolds in the final period last night to give Lisbon the win. The winning margin was Blue Devil Jerry Rose's placement after the first Lisbon touchdown in the first quarter.

It was East Palestine's second loss in four games, having lost to the Leetonia squad earlier this season. The Bulldogs have defeated Sebring and Warren St. Mary's.

The Blue Devils have victories over Minerva and Poland in Tri County tilts.

East Palestine scored on Dick Golenko's four yard smash in the first period and Spike Henry's 40 yard run in the third frame.

Billy Smith KO's Johnson In 2nd

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Boardwalk Billy Smith bombed his way into the forefront of the light heavy-weight ranks here last night with one solid punch.

The 33-year-old transplanted Californian—he now makes his home in Atlantic City, N. J. — knocked out Harold Johnson in 1:22 of the second round. It took 175-pound champion Archie Moore 14 rounds to accomplish the same feat last August.

Smith, 173½, caught the No. 1 light heavyweight title contender with a right hand on the side of his face that pitched 26-year-old Harold to the deck as if he'd been pole-axed. The 174-pound Philadelphia lurched forward, then staggered backward and finally sat down on his haunches.

Johnson tried to get up but he couldn't move. He said in his dressing room after the nationally televised bout, "The punch really hurt. I tried to get up but I was stunned. I'm still dazed."

Smith was a 2-1 underdog and consider a stepping stone for Johnson in the latter's campaign to earn another crack at Moore.

Fewer Mortgages Filed, But Principal Is Boosted In County

Mrs. Frances W. Morton, Columbiana County recorder, reports that although the number of chattel mortgages filed in her office during July and August is 158 fewer than during the same period last year, the aggregate principal shows an increase of $335,985.

"These figures are very significant, in that they represent trends of the times, including liberalized policies in money lending, and extended credit," Mrs. Morton believes.

July and August this year represented a peak period of business in the recorder's office, just as these two months last year were an annual high.

In the two-month period in 1953, there were 2,365 chattel mortgages filed, compared to 2,207 this year; in 1953, the aggregate principal for the two-month period was $1,173,766 compared to $1,509,751 this year.

In real estate mortgages, although the increase over last year was only two for the July - August period, there was an increase of $1,269,978 in the aggregate principal.

There were 549 real estate mortgages filed in 1953, in the peak period, as compared to 551 this year. The 1953 aggregate principal for the two months was $2,717,069 compared to the 1954 aggregate principal of $3,987,048 during the same period.

"It is of interest to note that the number of deeds and real estate mortgages recorded has not increased a surprising amount in comparison to the enormous increase in the aggregate principal," the recorder said.

In the July - August period of last year, 669 deeds were filed; this year, there were 782, or an increase of 113.

Sewage Survey Will Be Made

Firm To Outline Cost In Washingtonville

WASHINGTONVILLE — Solicitor DeVere F. Grappy has indicated he will have a contract written and ready for council's approval at its Oct. 18 meeting, to authorize an Akron engineering firm to make a preliminary survey determining the cost of a new sewage disposal plant and sewer lines.

This was at the request of Village Council at its meeting this week.

Representatives of the engineering firm Woodcock, Turpin and Fado, discussed the local sewage problem and outlined several methods of sewage disposal at a citizens' meeting last week. The group at that time approved a plan authorizing council to go ahead with the proposed sewage survey.

Washingtonville does not have a sewage disposal system, most of the homes being equipped with septic tanks. Sewage and kitchen waste flows into Little Beaver Creek, a condition which the state contends pollutes the stream.

A state Water Pollution Control Board permit to discharge waste into Little Beaver Creek expires Nov. 1.

Girl, 17, May Be Japan's Empress

TOKYO — A 17-year girl who now walks to school may some day be empress of Japan. The magazine Sangyo Keizai says Hatosuko Kitashirakawa is the "official choice" to marry Crown Prince Akihito, with a formal announcement due Nov. 3.

Miss Kitashirakawa is the daughter of an imperial prince, Maj. Nagahisa Kitashirakawa, killed in the Mongolian border clash with the Russians in 1937. Like many princely families, the Kitashirakawas have fallen on evil days and lost their titles since Japan's dreams of empire blew up. The family is so poor it cannot own an automobile.

The young lady wears an Audrey Hepburn hairdo, as do many Japanese girls. She has met the prince at least once on a public swimming beach. And probably they played together as small children. But there is no hint they are going together. Romance is not important in royal marriages here.

RAPS TAX APPEAL BOARD

MANSFIELD Ohio — State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, yesterday claimed Ohio's tax appeal board appointed by Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche is "taking advantage of the defenseless property owner" in the state. Rhodes said the 1949 General Assembly passed a law providing for equalization of real estate valuation. But he claimed, the board of tax appeals "proceeded to effect wholesale increases on real estate ... ranging from about 3 per cent to 62 per cent from 1950 to 1952." State officials were not immediately available for comment.

School Data Sought In Census Questions

Questions on school enrollment will be asked in addition to the regular inquiries on employment and unemployment in the October Current Population Survey, according to Acting Supervisor Edgar L. Bryan of the U. S. Census Bureau's district office at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Similar questions last October revealed that about 34.5 million persons in the United States between the ages of five and 34 years of age were enrolled in school, including kindergarten, in 1953 compared with about 32.5 million in 1952.

There were approximately 2.0 million more pupils in the fall of 1953 than in the fall of 1952. The Current Population Survey will be taken locally and in 229 other areas of the country next week. Local interviews will be handled by Mrs. Theresa Johnson of Wellsview.

Gunman Battles 100 Police, Is Killed

NEW YORK — A berserk gunman battled more than 100 police for 90 minutes in a Harlem apartment house yesterday before he was fatally wounded.

Dozens of the building's residents huddled terror-stricken in their apartments while Robert Ricks, 47, Negro cook, led police a running chase and finally shot it out with them at a stairwell of the top floor of the six-story structure. He was riddled by bullets.

Two plainclothesmen investigating bookmaking were questioning another man in another apartment hallway when Ricks entered.

The officers said Ricks fled when he saw them and ignored orders to halt. They chased him and he began firing.

At one point he shouted: "I'm going to die—I'm on the stuff."

Police said they believe he was referring to narcotics addiction.

Chessman Gets New Delay In Execution

SAN FRANCISCO — Convicted kidnap-rapester Caryl Chessman had another tenuous lease on life today, and another legal victory in his six-year fight to avoid the gas chamber.

The State Supreme Court yesterday refused to vacate the stay of execution one of its members granted the 32-year-old author of "Cell 2455, Death Row" on July 29, the eve of his most recent date with death.

That means Chessman's case is again in the hands of the Supreme Court of the United States and he cannot be executed until at least 60 days after that court acts. Chessman's attorney, Berwyn Rice, said he understood the high court plans to consider the case Wednesday.

The court may accept the case and call for written briefs. Or it may refuse to consider the case, as it has once before.
